It's hard to believe that's been a whole year already... Not being able to call you and talk about anything or everything is still just as hard as it was a year ago. You'd be so proud of your grandsons. They love being outside, particularly in the woods, just like you did. I'm going to take them camping so much and every time I do I'm going to tell them stories about you. I love you and miss you every day. You're still my bestest friend to the end.

—Austin

How can I even begin to explain to you how much I love you? Honestly I could sit here until I was as old as you are and never even get the first word to form... I don't know how many times I've said it before but I'm going to say it once more; I couldn't have asked for a better Father, Best Friend, Card Partner and so very much more. It's going to be so hard not calling you every day just to get on your nerves, but I will carry you and all my amazing memories of you with me forever.

Deepest sympathy to the family and friends Mark has touched. Mark was a brother to me and will be greatly missed.

—Pete Lohr

Love you so much brother, you are one of a kind, always there no matter what you were going through yourself without complaint nor need to brag, you kept me out of jail so many times I can't even count, got me out too. Lol, I may not have been blood but you would have spilt it for me. You never asked for anything in return. I am confident your at peace now, I would light a candle in your memory. But that many lights would cause the biggest forest fire in US history. You will always be part of my life. I hope you knew this when you was here, Love you, we only said that maybe 3 or 4 times through out so that's enough of the touchy Feely stuff, you know what it is Old Goat

—Biscuit
