

Norman C Bolick, Sr.

Dec. 31, 1933 - Feb. 9, 2024

Norman C Bolick, Sr., 90, of Morganton, NC passed away unexpectedly Friday, February 9th, 2024.

Born in Burke County, NC on December 31, 1933, he was the son of the late Ernest Owen Bolick and Catherine Cook Bolick.

He served in the US Army during the Korean conflict. Norman was a hardworking man who could do about anything he set his mind to. He worked at Skyland Textile Company for 24 years before becoming self-employed.

Norman enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening and most of all, he dearly loved the coast and spent as much time as possible there. He also loved his family and friends and his beloved dog, Lucy.

Norman was preceded in death by his siblings; Christine Bush, Verdia Crockett, Ned Bolick, and Peggy Brendle.

Norman is survived by his wife, Carolyn Sain Bolick of the home; children, Clay Bolick and wife, Sandy, Linda Bolick Cooper and husband, David; grandchildren, Amanda Bolick Butler, Kelly Bolick, Brad Cooper and Andrew Cooper and fiancée Jackie Shubert; great-grandchildren, Murphy Butler, Winston Butler, and Burton Butler.

At his request, no formal service is planned at this time. The family is planning a private service at a later date.

Sossoman Funeral Home and Crematory Center is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

So sorry to hear this. Just heard about Norman. I always considered him a friend. We had a lot fun together. Norm taught me to enjoy the beach. RIP until we meet again.

—Bob Gurley p

Carolyn and family, my sincere condolences for the loss of Norman. He was always kind and funny to be around, growing up with my best, life long friend, Clay. Norman was always good for a life lesson with us mischievous boys in the neighborhood. Cherish your memories of him as I do!

—Mark Hord

Dearest Carolyn and family, My deepest sympathy to all of you. May God's comfort cover each one of you. May the memories always be a blessing.

—Kathleen Curtis

Carolyn, Clay, & Linda, Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.

—Renee Winters

Carolyn/family, Sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. We worked together at Skyland Textile and he was a good friend. I pray the good Lord will touch you with peace and comfort in knowing he's not in pain anymore. Love you All. Bill Williams

—Bill Williams

CAROLYN AND FAMILY. You have My Deepest Sympathy in the Loss of Norman May The Lord Richly Bless You and Your Family I Love You All and I'm so Blssed to call Tou My FriendL.

—Mavis Leonard

Norman was a good friend and a good man. Always having a good time with everyone around him. I'm sorry for your loss, your family will be in our prayers.

—Jon Digh

Dear Carolyn, Linda and family. When I saw Bolick, I quickly looked to see if he was your relative. Oh, sadly, yes. Carolyn, what a long life he lived! I never met your husband but I know he was a fine man of character. I send my love and deepest condolences to your entire family. I'll be praying and thinking of you as you move forward with your lives. I know he left a legacy of love! Peace and comfort, Nancy Ferguson Brown

—Nancy Ferguson Brown

My sympathy to Carolyn, children and family in the loss of Norman. He was well liked in school and graduated with the Morganton High School class of 1953. We had many class meetings at Timberwoods after graduation and he and Carolyn were always there. He had many health problems along the way and now God has taken care of them.

—Reba P Reece

