I was blessed to get to know Thelma briefly when she would on occasion attend our ladies Bible Study with her grand-daughter-in-law, Nikki. I was always impressed with her wisdom and wit. She knew her Lord and was a fun lady to be around. May the Lord be a great comfort to her family!

Brenda, Chilson, and family, our hearts go out to you in the loss of Thelma. I especially enjoyed the short time I was able to be around Thelma who was just as described in the obituary. I appreciated her frankness, laughter, and spirit. I know she will be missed but we have the hope of the resurrection that we shared. May God give you peace as you grieve but rest in that HOPE. All our love!
