Since I was a little kid all the way to 50 years old. He had that distinct voice when he spoke to me. It always started out with “nephew”. He was the star on the dance floor at my wedding many years ago. He will be missed. Him and his 3 brothers are back together again. Love you uncle.

I remember Alan from when he and my former husband worked together at Bowers-Greene. He was a very friendly and comical guy. My sincerest condolences to his family and friends.
