Albert "Wade" Ogle, Jr.

July 17, 1984 - Aug. 11, 2026

Albert Wade Ogle, Jr was born to his loving parents, Rev. Albert Wade Ogle, Sr and Susan Page Ogle on July 17, 1984. "Wade" was already doing things his own way and on his own time. His birth certificate was already filled out for the 16th making for detailed changes on his first day of life.

Wade enjoyed playing sports growing up with his three beloved brothers: Alex Ogle (Jennifer), Sam Metcalf (Hannah), and Jeff Ogle (Grace). It is likely that sports played a big role in Wade's sense of integrity and honorability, which he carried throughout his life. His coaches, including his father, helped instill values that shaped his loyal character.

Wade graduated from Appalachian State University in 2006 with a degree in Construction Management and Land Development. Wade loved cheering on his App State Mountaineers Football team while grilling his "Wade Burgers" and smoking ribs.

Wade married his wife Lori in 2011. His patience and quiet strong nature shined through as an asset with his stepsons, Brady Mull and Braxton Mull. Wade's family bliss was complete when his son Albert Wade Ogle III "Tad" was born in 2013. Tad brought a shining light and softness into his world. Teaching the boys to be honorable and conduct themselves in a dutiful manner was paramount to Wade.

As a young family man, Wade and his brother Sam took a leap in starting Sure Point Builders Construction Company in 2012. Wade was hard working and the entrepreneurial spirit continued into development and design. Sure Point created the community of Tudor Croft in Black Mountain, NC. Wade's designs and plans of homes tapped into the creative, almost magical, part of him. His passion for homes and home building was shared with his wife Lori, who worked with him on every project.

Throughout his career many of his family members worked with Sure Point Builders in some capacity. Wade cherished working with family and put family above all things

Wade was blessed with many nieces and nephews. Precious memories were made with Jamie (Dakota) Woods, Ashley Ogle, Carter Ogle, Greyson Fox, Santi Ogle, Cannon Metcalf, Nole Fox, Chloe Metcalf, and Ana Leigh Ogle. The holidays were loud and full of fun with all of them together.

Wade was a faithful servant of God and was eager to help. Love thy neighbor was something that Wade took to heart. He loved his neighbors whom he called friends. He also loved his church family at First United Methodist Church in Valdese and was deeply thankful for their love and support through his hardest times.

Wade was a proud man of high integrity that took life very seriously but was calm, and patient when it counted. For example, it took a steady hand when he was pulling, backing, and setting up his camper. That patience was tested during his 5 year journey with brain cancer. During this trying time, he displayed his determined nature.

Wade passed away on August 11, 2026 in his labor-of-love home. His legacy is his family, the over 100 homes that will stand longer than any of us, and in the countless lives and hearts that his genuine smile touched.

The family will receive friends from 11 a.m. until 12 p.m., Saturday, August 15, 2026 at First United Methodist Church in Valdese. A celebration of Wade's life will follow at noon in the church with Rev. Dr. Bradley Hinton officiating.

Wade we were blessed to have you in our lives and we grieve with your family. It seems a tragedy that you left us so soon. We would like to express our gratitude for You and Sam for this wonderful community of Tudor Croft, we plan to live the rest of our lives in the house you built for us, which we call our cozy nest You are a true warrior, carrying yourself with grace and kindness as you fought a deadly disease. your spirit will shine on.

—Tim and Shirley Dwyer

Lori and family, We are sorry to hear of your loss. Gary and I rented at 58 Tudor Way for almost five years. We loved every minute being in that home and seeing the sunrise over the mountains every morning. Seeing Wade and Sam always at work and building such beautiful homes. I must say it's probably the best place we ever lived. What a legacy to have, sharing his talent and hard work to give people a home.

—Gary and Beth George

Our Prayers and Thoughts are with Lori , Sam and Family . Robert and Marybeth Howley Galatians 5:22-23: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness"

We have and will be keeping the Ogle Family in our thoughts and prayers during this time of loss of our dear Wade, Jr. I'm glad we had the opportunity to get to know him as we worshipped together at FUMC Valdese. He was a special person indeed.

—Debra and Robin Bratcher

I'm so sorry for the families loss. Wade was a great friend of mine through high school and the many memories we made during that time will last forever. So glad we were able to reconnect a few years ago. Thoughts and prayers will be with the family in the coming days and weeks ahead!

—Anthony Guffey

Thoughts, love and prayers go to Lori and family. May God comfort you all and give you peace during this difficult time. I pray your pain can ease in the fact he's pain free and home with Jesus. We love you all dearly. Scott and Cissy Kincaid Lance

—Cissy K Lance

Our precious friends: We will forever cherish the sweet times we had getting to know Wade and worshipping with him when he was able to be with us. We are so thankful that not only did we love him, but we learned to love Lori and Tad after meeting them. You are so special to us. We will talk to God each day and ask Him to pour His blessings over you all in the following days and weeks ahead. We love you and know that God will hold you in the palm of His hands. Rest in peace, dear Wade.

—Debbie & David

Wade and his family touched our lives not only by building our dream home but by creating a community of caring neighbors who have become lifelong friends. As a kind, thoughtful, honorable soul, he will never be forgotten.

—Adam and Meredith Smith

My sincere condolences to the family. We are saddened by Wades passing. I was a pleasure to work for such a man of integrity.
