I'm saddened to learn of the passing of Armond. His boys were close friends with my late son. If I can do anything to help either of them, please reach out. My heart and prayers are with Alex and Adam and all of Armond's loved ones during this difficult time.

We all wonder, if we leave this world, what have we done to make it a better place? Darcy, you have done that in the short time you have been on this earth. You have two sons who will carry on all the strong attributes you have demonstrated to them over the years. They too, will make a lasting mark on this world and impact many peoples's lives. I know you are very proud of them. I will miss our talks, your wisdom, and seeing how you worked through a problem. I have many great memories of you that will help me through this difficult time. I will miss that contagious laugh and your willingness to always help when someone was in need. I know you are in a better place now, and I hope you see that we are all in a better place because of what you have given to us over the years. I love you very much and I am a better person because of you.

—Bryan Bernard

Sometimes a wonderful person comes into your life in unexpected ways. That person was Armond for our daughter Becky and our family. He brought laughter, insight, and a friendliness that fit right in. My deepest sympathies. What a wonderful man. How much he cared and looked out for others - especially his family, was inspiring. He was so proud of his boys and excited to see what they would become in this world. I mourn for him that he won't get to see how awesome they will be. He spoke about his parents and brother and sisters constantly. He wanted to be a rock for them all. His parents should be proud of the amazing man they helped create. I never imagined he would be taken so soon. A large hole is left by his absence. I will miss him dearly.

–Becky

Jeff and Sally, I am still in the state of shock! My heart and prayers are with your entire family.
