We are so thankful to have had such a good friend as Bon. He is such a smart and talented young man who loves the Lord, his parents, sister, and family dearly. After achieving his associate degree in “Construction Management” he aspired to continue on to get a North Carolina “General Contractor License”. Bon was also a remarkable poet and was one of only 200 authors to have publications in a world wide poetry book. Our heartfelt love goes out to Ricky, Mary, and Jennifer. In Bon’s own words “If either of you start feeling down and sad! Always remember, God will make things not so bad!” Bon, you will always have a special place in our heart.
