Brandy was aradiant light that shined wherever she went and affected whoever was within earshot. She had ups and downs in her life as we all do but Brandy dealt with life's little challenges with grace and humor. Brandy had the ability to lighten anyone's mood and if she couldn't make you laugh you probably didn't have a pulse. Condolences to Jill, Dave Ashley,, Lynn ,Jacob and Sara. Brandy and me went to school together. But after school, we lost touch. The one day out of nowhere, brandy came back into life. I seen her at nara express. And we reconnected. It was during a rally dark time in my life. And she pretty much saved my life. She showed me a different way. She showed me that there was more to life then what I was living. She showed me a part of life that I had never seen. I am alive today because of brandy and even though we lost touch yet again, I have always kept her to very dear to me. To hear of this news is beyond heartbreaking and unreal. I'm so sorry her life was cut so short. It breaks my heart. I have such fond memories of brandy and her smile lit my life like no other has before. Her smile took me to a place that I had never been. Her hugs made me feel like I had a purpose in life. Brandy made me feel like I was a person that was in this earth for a reason. I'm so sorry sweetheart that your life was cut short. I will forever keep you in my memories, and you will always have a place in my heart. Rest easy now, and fly high babygirl. Every time I see a cloud, I will think of you. Everytime the sun shines, it will warm my heart. Forever thinking you brandy.

I remember when Brandy was pregnant with sweet little Sara. She would stay with us sometimes, and those days were filled with so much joy. My sister and I adored her completely. We'd walk up and down the road, talking about everything and nothing at all. Even though she was a few years older, she always made me feel cherished, never once impatient with spending time together. I know Brandy is now with her family in Heaven, surrounded by love and light, truly at peace.

—Brittany Lemmon (Poole)

The sadness and disbelief overwhelms me as I find myself having to send my condolences so soon. Brandy, a woman and a mother that was so humble and had a soft-spoken nature, could turn into a fierce protector at the drop of a dime when it came to her loved ones, especially over my niece Sara Flack. Your name, Brandy, will forever be etched in our memories, never to be forgotten. This is not a goodbye, but a temporary farewell until we meet again. Please watch over us from above, as Heaven has undoubtedly gained a beautiful Angel. Rest in peace, Brandy. Love always, Jessica Flack.

Brandy was such a beautiful person to be around. We were tight in Table Rock Middle School, oh what memories... Brandy was on point with her perfect hands. I was so

Brandy was on point with her perfect bangs, I was so jealous.. The old skating ring days was a blast, she always was down to go have fun and keep everyone smiling... So much time has went by but her beauty never changed... Brandy loved her baby girl Sara, she was so scared when she went into labor while we were camping but once Sara came into this world she became Brandy's world... Brandy you will be truly missed but I'm glad your no longer hurting and now in a place where you are free... RIP Brandy
