We worked together for many years at the law offices of Simpson Martin Baker and Aycock, and we became lifelong friends. We were next door neighbors when our children were small, often visiting in each others home. Carol was a funny lady and liked to play jokes, wearing silly wigs when her hair wasn't exactly perfect. I'll miss the fellowship and memories we shared. Peace and comfort to Terry and "Little" Ray and their families.

We just met Carol at Grace Height in the room with my mom Irene. Such a very sweet lady. She was afraid the surgery wasn't going to go well and ask us to help her pray.

We did and now GOD has healed her. Prayers for y'all and we will see Mrs Carol again soon. Our friends in ChristJesus

I met Carol when she moved to the warehouse office at NCSD and worked alongside my husband. We had many lunch dates with the warehouse men. Carol was a lot of fun to be around. Carol loved her children and grandchildren with all her heart. My deepest condolences to Terri, Ray and the grandchildren.
