Thank you to everyone that left a comment ,thought or lit a candle about Chuck .it all means so much ! Dr . Kasten, Chuck really thought so much of you ! We both did . He did so well after his colon cancer and we had a great 6 more years after that . He started coughing in May 2023 .diagnosed in Dec . With Lung cancer spread very rapidly and Jesus called him home in march 2024 . I miss him so much but know He is completely Healed now . Once again just want everyone to know I appreciate each one of you .

—Rosetta Fisher

I had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Fisher during a tough time and what struck me was the amazing peace he exuded; more worried about everyone else (most notably his wife, Rosetta) than himself. Just came across his obituary today when thinking about he and Rosetta and my heart hurts for his family; however, his suffering has ended and he is with the Lord. For that we praise and exalt our God!

Chuck was a man who was one of the easiest people to talk to that we've ever met. We sure did enjoy his wit and knowledge. Most of all, we will miss getting to talk to Chuck about the Lord on this side. That was something Chuck truly enjoyed talking about was all the goodness of God. Someday,we will be reunited with him in the very presence of God. Gary&Yvonne

I have met very few people in my lifetime (86 years) who I knew was a good person with the first hand shake. Mr. Chuck was one of those very few people. All the good deeds he has done for me, I can't count! He came to my house and buried my precious dog for me, when I just couldn't bring myself to do it. I will truly miss him. Buck

Chuck always said that he had a Proverbs 31 wife, and i know its true , for she is also my best friend . My heart is breaking for her and I Pray that God will hold her close, comfort her sorrows , and fill that great void. I have to agree with the grandson, this world needs a lot more men like Chuck. I know he's in Heaven, and I will see him again. Yes , I got a monkey carved from a peach seed, and I will cherish it always.

What a blessing from God to have Chuck join our family. To know Rose and Chuck’s story and how our Perfect Provider brought them together, is such a testimony. The joy Chuck brought to everyone and the love he shared with us will never be forgotten. We're so thankful God allowed us to have him for what doesn't seem like long enough, but to have him and the love he brought our sweet Rose and everyone else for any time at all is one of life's richest gifts. Chuck will be missed so very much. Thank God we know we will see him again soon. Praying every single day that Jesus surrounds Rose with His peace that surpasses all understanding. That He continues to overflow her days with joy and understanding. And that His presence is made known anytime she feels sad or alone. Love always, Justin, Heather, Ruby, Bobby and Mollie

We had the honor of meeting Chuck when we came down to see if we wanted to live here in the summer of 2022. We got to go to dinner with them and to the car show. Then when we moved in 2023 we got to visit with him and Rosetta several times and sure enjoyed hearing his stories and what wisdom he had. Rosetta would put videos on her instagram i remember this one she said to Chuck do you have anything to say ? He said go to church …. Well I ended up going to church because of that video. You will be missed Chuck down here but someday we will get to see you again

Wish I could have got to know Chuck sooner in life. I met Chuck and became friends in a short time . He was a true friend and we had a lot in common he will not be forgotten. He was there to help in an instant and gave more than he would ever take. He remained strong no matter what the circumstances, and most of all he Loved the Lord. Gonna miss you pal.

Chuck will surely be missed. We love him and he is a great brother in law. And a wonderful husband for my sister. Although, We would have loved for him to stay longer with us here, the Lord was ready for Chuck to come home to him. We will see him again someday. I pray for Gods peace and comfort for Rosetta in the days to come. I know she will greatly miss him and her heart is broken. The Lord will surround you with his love.

The world was a better place with my brother in law Chuck in it! He had a sense of wit and wisdom! He brought so much happiness to the family, especially to my sister Rosetta, his wife!! God brings people together when needed! Their story is a true love story from their beginning! “In sickness and health, till death do us part”! Never a truer statement!! Chuck’s faith and his love for the Lord shone through his personality! “Chuck is now with Jesus” words from Rosetta on my voicemail! We love you Chuck! Even though our hearts are hurting.. we know you will have peace forever more! Mom and you will have a glorious reunion, talking about the Bible and sharing your wit and wisdom…please say hi to her for me

Our heart hurts for you Rose We know God will help you through this a day at a time…. We will miss him and watching him love life with you! We will miss him carving monkeys from peach seeds, and all of the handy man talents he did. We will see him again. No more pain or sadness where he is. Mom and his little girl be glad to see him I know. love you
