Thank you for everything you ever did for me, I will never forget you, your amazing cooking skills and all the jokes. Love and miss you always.

—Elysha Morris

Jerleen, My sympathy and love for you during this great loss. I remember getting to talk to Chris and about his love of football. I love you sister and hope you can find God's strength during this time.

—Rhonda Griffin

Chris I'm going to miss you brother . Don't worry about your Mother I promise to take care of her . I know how much you loved her . Go. In Peace to Our Savior.

—Jeffrey Roland

Jerleen, Even though we've never met in person, I hold you dear to my heart. My heart now breaks for you with the loss of your son. May God give you strength in the upcoming days, weeks and years. Rest in the peace that this separation is only temporary and you will be reunited with Chris someday in God's kingdom. With sympathy and love, Christine

I'm so sorry for your loss. Words can't express how my heart breaks for you. You are in my prayers
