Miss you terribly Craig! But I know you are enjoying riding your Harley on those streets of gold! Until we meet again brother! Your friend, Savannah

–Savannah Miller

Craig and I became friends over the short two years I knew him. Helped us out with A/C and took great care to make sure it all was set up right. I came to calling him "Lucky" because it seems he was always recovering from a crash, narrowly missed a crash, or was dealing with a swarm of yellow jacket. I'm going to miss him.

–Randy L. Smith

I had only just met Craig. I'm sorry I didn't have time to know him much. I knew he was a good guy just by his talk Prayers to his whole family, and especially his mother. I hope God is comforting you through your loss. Heaven must have needed a .new angel that day.

–Kathy Putnam Byrd

The world lost a good man and the universe gained an everlasting soul. Bitter Sweet but so true. I'm glad I got to know you Craig. You were very special to so many. Until we meet again Cassie many. Until we meet again Cassie

So sorry for your loss

—Debbie McNeill

We're so sorry for the loss of our good friend Craig. Craig was good friends of my brother, Jimmy as well. I've known Craig for many years. He was always sacrificing is own self and time to help others in need. Very big hearted and caring. He helped me many times thru the years. Craig had told me the last year or so that he didn't have long to live. But he was a fighter and always fought thru the pain. I just thought he would always be here to talk to. I'm going to miss our crazy conversations and stories. Craig enjoyed life and loved his family. My mom had some of the same health problems as Craig and it took her life early too. There are many heating and AC systems out there running thanks to Craig. We're going to miss him coming to our shop. I still have people calling that Craig told them about us. Super good guy. We're heart broken. Prayers for his family and all involved. Miss you and Love you brother. Rest in peace till we meet again.

—Danny Littlejohn

My condolences to Alecia and Trey and mother as well as other family. Craig was always nice and respectful to me- thoughts and prayers.

Craig, I don't know where to begin, I've started this over and over again because I don't know what to say, I never expected to have to do this. I figured you'd out live us all, you were tough as nails brother. If anybody could fix it, it was you. If anybody could shine just a little bit of light on their wrist day, it was you. If anyone ever needed anything, the one person that would give it to ya if they had it, it was you and if you didn't have it to give, you'd still find a way to make sure they got it. You always had my back no matter what, you always called back and never let me hanging. Even if we didn't talk for a few weeks you'd always shoot me a msg to check in on me. I'm gonna miss those random text, the wild stories, and the talks we had when I needed boost. I'm gonna miss you. You were a great friend and a great man. I love you Craig and I hope to see you again one day but for now watch over us all, keep us safe and please, do me one last favor, let my boy know I love him and I miss him. Forever your friend, LunchBoxx

—Tiffany, Akaydian,and Austin

anyone who knows me and my son, Craig, know how very close we were. He was the light of my life, a kind and generous soul, who would lend a total stranger a helping hand. My solace now is only that he is finally pain free and is with his hero, his grandpa, Cleo. Can't wait to join him so I will be whole again.
