Ruby, I am so sorry for Dallas passing. He was so good to bring vegetables from his garden after Johnny passed. I knew if I needed anything I could call you and him. The days ahead are going to be rough, but with God being with you just ask Him every day to give you strength. My health has really gone done this year and the only place I go now is dialysis and doctors. I was thinking about you during the receiving and funeral in heart even though I couldn't be there in person. My prayers and thoughts are with you. Lynn Causby

Dallas I'll never forget the times we had at EIC, you and I butted heads more than once but at the end of day we were friends. To your family I send my condolences and my thoughts are with them and I'll see you again my friend.

—Jackie Bayfield

Daddy, I can not put into work how much my heart hurts that you are gone. I know you are not suffering any longer but I wish you was still here. I miss you so much already . I love you daddy. Until we meet again Your daughter Cindy
