Darryl Edward Corley, 73, of Connelly Springs, NC passed away on Monday, May 15, 2023. He was born on November 26, 1949 in Atlanta, GA, to the late Horace Edward Corley and Mary McCormick Corley.

I first met Darryl many years ago when his bluegrass band was playing at a friend's house party. I knew immediately he was a fine musician and person. We got together to hang out and play music many times, and I always loved to hear him sing. Nobody, including the the Eagles, could sing "Doolin-Dalton" and "Desperado" better than Darryl, and I would always ask him to sing these songs at his gigs. Our musical tastes were similar, and we loved many of the same Americana and bluegrass bands. Darryl encouraged me with my music and liked my band. The last time we talked he said that he would like to come up and play a gig with me, and I am sorry that we did not get a chance to do that. Darryl had a big heart and cared so much for his family, friends, colleagues and students. We will all miss him.

I worked with Darryl at Salem. He was our vice principal and he loved the children. He helped me so much when I had a tough school year. I don't think I would have survived the year without his help. I will always be grateful for his kindness. My condolences to his family.

I was one of the many students fortunate enough to encounter "Mr. Corley" at Glen Alpine Jr. High. He was an excellent educator with a talent for making learning fun! I'll never forget the mischief that went on in the halls of GA Jr. High, mostly instigated by one Mr. Corley! It was also quite common to hear his guitar and songs drifting down the halls like "Dead Skunk in the Middle of the Road" or my favorite "Mr. Bojangles". Little did I know that one day he would sell real estate with my future husband and share a song he wrote for his own sweet wife (thanks Leslie!) at our wedding. Darryl's wit, smile, and joy for life will be greatly missed!

Wow-what a shock. He was easily one of my favorite teachers of all time. He was so personable to us students and made science so interesting. I used to love the back-and-forth good-natured ribbing between Mr. Corley and Mr. Bill Morgan at GA Junior High...like a floor show before all the classes. He tried his best to teach me to play the guitar...alas to no avail given my clear lack of talent at that endeavor. The last time I saw him was when he did a "Back-porch" concert at CoMMA several years ago. Thank you Mr. Corley for the devotion to your students, thank you for your field trips, thank you for your humor, thank you for all you did for my era at GA. Condolences to the family...

Darryl was not only my brother, he was my best friend, my confidant, my protector. He was always my hero. To Darryl—I don't even have to tell you how much I love you. I am certain you know. The world is an emptier, lonelier place without you in it. But, I will try my best to keep you in it with all the incredible memories you gifted your "Lil Sis". Spread your wings and soar, Big Brother, spread your wings and soar.

—Judy Corley Ackley

I first met Darryl in 1971, our junior year at Gardner Webb. We instantly bonded as both friends and musician friends. We played music together for our junior and senior years. After we graduated, we continued. Darryl moved back to his hometown of Union SC, and myself to Greer SC. We still played music in a band called Whistle Stop. Later we started a band together call Flint Hill. In the mid 80's we put together a group Dakota with musicians we hand picked. Darryl was the star, no once could sing like him, with a voice that would spell bund you. But more than his voice was our friendship. We never lost contact, even though we were in two different states. We talked on the phone at least several times a month, or more. We never hung up talking, without saying "I love you". He always called me "Big Steve", even when I was not big. I always called him "Corley". There will never be another " Corley". He was my best friend...
