Dearest Martha, family and friends, What a great friend and brother in Christ. He is in his heavenly home and "well done good and faithful servant" is his legacy. Thank you for sharing him with us through the years. He was a faithful attendee at our weekly Christian Business Men's Connection meetings for many years and as a group of men we always paid close attention to the wisdom he shared with us. Live on the memories! Love you!

Dewey was a great friend and associate in our industry. Praying for all the family as they move on in life without him.

We bought the beautiful home that Dewey orchestrated building and named it the FOXDEN. He and Martha had lived there many years and it still reflects Dewey's love and pride. He was honest and a true person of excellence. No doubt, he now has a heavenly home even more beautiful than his beloved FOXDEN. Love & prayers for the fine family he leaves behind.
