Tribute Wall

Dolly was my cousin, for her mother Mary Ann Bollinger was my aunt. I remember how happy her mom and dad were when they brought her as a baby to show her off to us. Dolly was so much younger than I, and I was either at Appalachian, or teaching in Caldwell County, so we didn't have a lot in common except other relatives. She was lovely and I missed getting to know her well. My loss, as I was never told she had a child, nor what she did for work or relaxation. Most of all, no one has ever told me how she left this world. But I can still hear her laughter when some of us went hiking on Table Rock.
