Christine and I were classmates all through school. She was always so quiet and sweet. I don't think I ever heard her say anything bad about anyone or any thing. We had conversed over the past few years via Facebook Messenger and I will miss her comments and love and support. She truly was one of the sweetest most deserving people I have ever known. My deepest sympathies to all of you, her family, as you go through this time. You will be carried in my heart and thoughts and prayers.

I will miss our daily conversations but at peace knowing that she is quilting and tending to the heavenly garden with her Lord and Savior; Jesus Christ.
