

Frank Labore

Dec. 26, 1948 - July 31, 2026

Frank Labore, 77, of Morganton, NC passed away Friday, July 31, 2026 at UNC Health Blue Ridge, with his family by his side. He was born on December 26, 1948 in Manchester, New Hampshire to the late Walter Joseph Labore and Madeleine Labore. Frank was raised in the Catholic church. He was a veteran of the US Navy, having served for twenty-seven years during the Vietnam Conflict and Desert Storm as well as several other duty stations. He was a physician's assistant at Western NC Youth Corrections and Foothills Correctional Institute.

In addition to his parents, Frank was preceded in death by brothers, Mike Labore and David Labore; sister, Lynne Marie Labore.

He is survived by his wife of 33 years, Charlotte Rolison Labore; sons, Marc Labore, Matthew Labore and David Labore (Rhonda); daughters, Chari Labore (Allen Jones) and Krystine Chase; ten grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; brother, Andrew Labore; sisters Lorraine Bilodeau and Denise Wilder.

The family will receive friends from 4 until 5 p.m., Thursday, August 13, 2026 at Sossoman Funeral Home. A memorial service will follow at 5 p.m. in the Colonial Chapel of the funeral home with Chaplain Turbeville officiating. Honors will be provided by the NC Department of Corrections. Burial will be at a later date in Pollocksville Cemetery.

Sossoman Funeral Home and Crematory Center is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

—Denise Wilder - sister

Deepest condolences Charlotte and to the rest of the family. Frank was a nice man and always friendly.

—Pam Buchanan

—Anonymous

I worked with him at Foothills Correctional, he always had a smile on his face. Thoughts and prayers for the family.

—Pat Simpson

—Becky Bendit

—Brian Propst Angel

Truly a wonderful person. Frank was our PA at Foothills Correctional. He was so good to work with. His personality would light up the room. Really hated to see him leave. May he rest in peace.

—Sunny Denton