Harper Boone Edmisten

June 2, 2026 - June 2, 2026

Harper Boone Edmisten is survived by loving parents, Willie and Mallory Edmisten, and four siblings—Chloe-Ann, Will, Ida Joan, and Eleanore—who eagerly awaited the arrival of their newest baby sister or brother.

While we grieve this loss, we look to God for comfort, His promises, and the hope that one day we will meet our precious baby face to face.

Fifteen weeks was far too soon to say goodbye to our little blessing. We often wonder who Harper would have become. What kind of personality would our baby have had? What hobbies and interests would have filled our home because of this newest addition?

These are questions we will always carry in our hearts. Yet one thing is certain: in the short time we had with you, Harper Boone, you made an immeasurable impact on our lives. You were loved from the very beginning, prayed for every day, and cherished beyond words.

Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever in our hearts.

Harper Boone Edmisten, thank you for blessing our lives and for bringing together our family, friends, and community in a way that reminded us just what love and relationship truly is.

We love you, sweet Harper.
