My heart broke with the notification of Hazel's transitioning. I offer my deepest condolences to the family and continued prayers as you go through these difficult days. In school, we were had a musical singing group, The Composers, and we did have a marvelous time. I lost touch with her later in life but, she's always remained in my fondest memories growing up. Beautiful, always with a beautiful smile as well. RIP Hazel, RIP, and tell Laura, Harriet and Buckeye howdy until we meet again.

–Ruth Roseboro

Hazel was always a talented lady. Growing up with her she would brighten up the room with her beautiful smile and personality. Rest in his loving arms.

–Gary Harbison

My sincere condolences to this sweet family. Hazel was such a beautiful, talented and kind person. She is to be remembered by her sweet smile and kindness to all. Now as she sleeps, we pray that her soul is at peace, Amen.
