

Jack Alan Helton II

Dec. 26, 1952 - March 12, 2026

Jack Alan Helton II, 73, of Morganton, North Carolina, was born December 26, 1952, in Morganton, NC, to the late Jack Alan Helton I and Maxine Taylor Helton.

He spent most of his life in Morganton, the place he always considered home. For a period of time, he lived in Charlotte, where he attended Central Piedmont Community College. Jack built his career in auto sales and insurance, working many years in industries that reflected his steady work ethic and determination.

He enjoyed spending time with friends, starting his mornings with coffee, and taking rides around the lake with his dog, Bo. He valued independence and was known for being strong-willed.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lynn Helton.

He is survived by his sons, Bradley and Jonathan Helton; daughters-in-law, Katerina and Kate; and his grandchildren, Jacob and Stella.

The graveside service will be held at 12 p.m., Saturday, March 21, 2026 at Grandview Baptist Church Cemetery with Rev. Shawn Milburn officiating.

Sossoman Funeral Home and Crematory Center is assisting the family with the arrangements.

arrangements.

Tribute Wall

In a senior moment I missed the graveside today because I thought it was at 1 pm. I'm so sorry I didn't get to pay my respects to Jack's family. Jack and I were business partners in the mid 80's. We had a good run. He was so much fun to work with. We maintained our friendship throughout the years. I will really miss him. May he rest in peace.

—Charles Conley

RIP, MY FRIEND. THE GOOD TIMES WE HAD BACK IN THE DAY WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. SENDING PRAYERS TO ALL YOUR FAMILY. SO LOMG, UNTILWE MEET AGAIN

—Keith Byrd

As a teacher I remember Jack as being kind, cooperative and smart in our school

—Ed Hardin

I will miss our talks about cars and always making me laugh about something!!
You will be so missed til we meet again Cuz/friend

—DeVera Powell

So deeply saddened to hear of Jacks passing. He has been the best neighbor over the last 20 years. He and Lynn always spoiled my Taylor like she was their granddaughter. Lots of wonderful memories made in our time together. May he granddaughter. Lots of wonderful memories made in our time together. May he rest in peace. Lifting family in prayers, love and hugs. Nicole and Taylor

–Nicole Taylor

Jack and Lynn were the best neighbors we could've asked for, they spend many hours taking care of me when I wanted to come hangout with them and get ice cream. He will be very missed. We love you Jack- Taylor, Tyler, Nicole, Vickie.

–Vanharken Family

Jack was a very good man, a real straight shooter. I knew him for many years. My sincere condolences to his family. Peace be with you. Lin Willis

–Lin Willis

–Paula Ellis

Heartbroken to learn of your transition, Jack. May you SIHP classmate. You are now reunited with Lynn.

–Ruth Roseboro

Our condolences to Jack's family and friends. I found him to be a very pleasant and fun person to be around. May he rest in peace.

–Robert and Thaxine McGhee

So sorry to hear about the loss of Jack. I knew him for the 19 years we owned Morganton Hardware. He was a good customer and a friend to everyone who worked there. I always enjoyed seeing him come in for a key and having time for a chat. He will be missed. My condolences to his family. May he rest in peace.

–Bill Branstetter

We are so deeply sorry for your loss .Jack was a good neighbor& friend for many years, We share special memories of Lynn & Jack over the years as neighbors , your family will be in our prayers as you walk thru this difficult time, May God's peace give you comfort in knowing they are together again! Prayers Cotton Baird & wife Vickie

–Cotton Baird and Vickie

Rest in peace my friend.

–Susan Peach

–Crystal Ball

I love you Jack. I always looked up to you and enjoyed our time together. Rest easy cousin...miss you.

–Debra

