Lisa, Janice and Randy, I was so sad to hear about Jeff's passing. (I still think of him as Mr. Marlow.) As a young child, someone that tall should have been scary, but he was always such a nice, caring person I can't remember being scared around him. He will be missed by so many.

We were neighbors and good friends of the Marlow family during my childhood. I was eight years younger than Jeffrey and vividly remember those days. I remember him as someone to look up to. Sending my condolences to your family during this time of loss.

I'm so sad to hear that Jeff has died. We're not suppose to die!! Jeff was such a caring & respectful person. I'm so glad he was one of my Hickory High School classmates, plus was a regular member of our monthly class of '59 Zoom meetings. I'm sending his family lots of vertical hugs!

Rest in peace Jeff. May you live in our memory.
