Chris sand Sally, Jonathan was my favorite friend from my childhood. He always inspired me and pushed me to be a better man. I saw him in 2010 in Atlanta and had a great time hanging out with him. We got to catch up after so many years, it was great to see him happy and doing so well. I'm not sure what happened after that as we lost touch again, my mom called me with the news and I forgot how much he meant to me. I'm sorry for your loss, he was a loyal friend to me and I always enjoyed being a part of your family growing up. Please know I loved Jon even despite the people around me telling me not to be his friend, I always was. I just wish I could tell him how much I loved him one more time. God bless

Our deepest sympathies to your family on the loss of Jonathan. We are members at Faith Pres on Bost Road and Richard and Beth, his uncle and aunt are so dear to us. When they hurt, we all hurt and do hurt for his family. May the Lord God comfort you as you grieve. Jesus knew loss too and cried when his friend died. He knows our pain so he is a perfect comfort. Our prayer is that you'll take all you're feeling to Him. He can help you bear it AND walk you through pain and suffering. He experienced pain and suffering on our behalf. May he bring you peace and supply all your needs as you look to him. He is near!

My heart hurts for Jonathan's family and friends. I can't wrap my head around his passing just yet. He was my sons good friend in school and I knew him well. I enjoyed seeing on FB his wedding pictures, birth of his daughter and how he became a wonderful good man. I wish I was able to physically hug you Sally and Chris, and take away your huge pain and sorrow, but sadly I can not as I live too far away. I can pray for you both and Jonathan's wife and daughter that our Lord brings you peace and comforts you all. I love you Sally and Chris. I'm truly heartbroken.
