Judy Pearson

Feb. 21, 1945 - March 27, 2019

Judy Pearson was born February 21, 1945 to Nola and Grover Clark, and was a native of Morganton, NC. She passed away March 27th, 2019.

Judy enjoyed to bake and learn to accomplish new hobbies. She had a true dedication to learning her genealogy. A profound and dignified southern woman who owned all her independence and took great pride in herself and her family. Her children and grandchildren gave her the sparkle in her eye, kept her pushing, and Little Debbie in business. She was boastful at each one's accomplishments. She knew each one held their own throne, draped in her love and support. She prayed often and always for others. She conquered many places around the world, a young girl, herself, would have never imagined. She loved her husband hard. He took care of her and she wanted to take care of him. They valued each other's feelings and shared a great need to putting their children first and showing them a care free life unlike their upbringing. She will be remembered for her unapologetic laughs, contagious smile, and her ability to see the good in everyone.
