Kevin will be greatly missed. As you say, he was "One of a kind". We were so sorry to hear of his unexpected passing. We are here to help you with anything you need, anytime. It is so sad to learn of someone passing on, especially so quickly as with Kevin. It was good he did not suffer with a long illness, yet it is hard on his loved ones who are here to mourn. Time will help as will the love and friendship of friends and family.

—Sandi Johnson

I was totally caught off guard when I heard of Kevin's passing. Kevin was a good man and was a blessing to many people. I talked with him several times when he and Amy would come over to check on the old home place. I also talked with him several times on the phone about different things, and he was always kind and helpful. I don't have the words to take away the pain from Amy and the other loved ones he left behind, but I wish I did. However, Kevin leaves behind a legacy and the gift of memories for all of you to cherish in the days to come. He will be greatly missed!
