Rest in peace Larry,you were so kind to me.I enjoyed our chats when I would come by to pay my rent every other week,loved your stories about work and the good old days.Love Diane.

—Diane Porter

I have the best childhood memories, spending vacation with Aunt Marilyn and Uncle Larry at the old house up the gravel road. Best times ever. You will be missed .

—Sheila Caraway Redwine

I love you grandpa, thank you for all the memories.

—Douglas Foster

Larry has been my neighbor, since I moved to Morganton in 2016. When I would be out walking my dog, if Larry was outside, we would stop to greet him. He was always very gracious and invited us to sit a spell and visit. He surely had some interesting stories to tell!
