Larry was a very sweet friendly man. He didn't seem to care about what anyone had but WHO they were he always smiled when you said hello to him. He always spoke to me about his dogs and shared a poem with me about one of them. Loved to paint and share pictures with others. He will be remembered and missed.

Gale my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family! I don't know if you remember me or not but we used to play together at my great aunt Pearl's house. I'm Bobby's daughter.

Crystal and Mike Parsons, I am praying for you and all of Larry's family. Larry's was one of the sweet residents that I enjoyed seeing each morning at Brookdale Lenoir. He made me a necklace and I will continue to cherish him as I look at my necklace and see his precious smile. May God bless and keep you all.
