Logan Miller was the definition of a good man. He cared about everyone before himself. He wore his heart on his sleeve and wasn't afraid to tell you how he felt. Logan was 2 years younger than me but I knew him since first Baptist summer program. We grew up together, we drank together, we laughed and cried together. I hope there's a seat up there reserved for you buddy and here's a toast to your final party. Just like your bio says buddy, you were a true celebration of life. You will be dearly missed but never forgotten.
