Our family chain is broken; but as God calls us home one by one, our chain will link again."Lula's passion was gardening. Each year she would grow and can the bountiful harvest that she not only used herself but shared with neighbors and family. She won many First Place Blue Ribbons for her canned goods at the county fairs.

Lula was very talented musically. Although she never had music lessons, she could play any musical instrument. She would often pick up her guitar, banjo or harmonica and sing country/bluegrass songs. She was also an excellent yodeler.

Lula was a kind, caring, hard working person, one who never complained. She will be sorely missed by her family, friends, and all who came in contact with her. She retired from Alba-Waldensian, Inc., Valdese and was a member of Amherst Baptist
