You were such a beautiful person inside and out, Granny! Your Love was big as the mountains and your smile as precious as a rose! You made such a huge impact in my life. I loved watching you smile when you would eat a Hershey's! You had style and class. I will always cherish all the memories and time we shared. You were like another Grandma to me. You loved me unconditionally and I Love you always too! I can't wait to see you when we meet again!
