We are so very sorry for your loss! Maxine was a beautiful lovely lady she was so sweet to me always! Prayers for peace and comfort! Love & prayers!

—Joan Harrison

While I did not know Maxine very well personally, she was always spoken of fondly by those I knew her through and will always remain a warm presence even in memory. May she rest in peace. My condolences.

—Michael LaFevers

Maxine was a dear friend , more like a sister to me . We had a lot of good fellowship with Jerry and Maxine, I will miss her, but I know she is not in any pain anymore. May God bless the family , know I love you all.

—Gaile Williams

Maxine was caring and kind, and welcomed me wholeheartedly into the family with so much love. She and Jerry were supportive of my daddy during his dark times; their love was healing for him, and without that I might never have known my family. Her affectionate marriage and never have known my family. Her affectionate marriage and commitment to her family was inspiring. I'll treasure the memory of the big smiles she always had for my babies. I know she'll be missed.

—Jacquie Propst-Skrzat

So sorry for your loss. We will keep you in our prayers and always in our hearts. Going to miss that big smile that would make my dark day bright.

—George & Terry Davanelos

I feel blessed to have known Maxine and have had the privilege to live next to such great neighbors. She will surely be missed

—Alyson Jackson

Every interaction with you was bright and beautiful. You always said my name with a smile. I said to your granddaughter many times that your the love you and your husband shared was a goal in relationships. I am so grateful for having met you and thankful for Shannon introducing us.

—Rosalie

One and only Rebel child from a family meek and Mild.. my mama seemed to know what lay in store.. There must be a special place in heaven reserved for mothers of wild and rambunctious boys. Not always patient, but always , always kind and fair. I will miss hearttelling me to "be careful in the morning" Mama and kind and fair. I will miss her telling me to " be careful in the morning " Mom and dad we're married 63 years ..when she would ask his opinion on some matter he'd say.." whatever suits you,.. Just tickles me to death. " now thats love. Rest in peace Mama.

–Todd Propst

So very sorry for your loss. We re praying for all of your family.

–Karen and Dan Hayter

–Caitlin Propst

–Michael Coffey

A very kind and generous person. She always treated me as one of her family.

–Buzz Salway

Your light will always shine in hearts that loved you. Your life will serve as a faithful servant to those in need and your faith will be a Beacon for others to follow! We love you!
