Precious Megan. I sure miss our talks at Friday Friends. I was so thrilled when I found out you worked there and so excited to catch up on the years that had passed. To see your sweet smile warmed my heart and to see you light up about your son meant the world to me. Rest in Peace precious one, you were loved very much!! Debbie, Praying for you and your family. Megan bragged about what a good mother and family that she had and she truly loved her son and you. Asking God to wrap his arms around all of you and to give you Peace during this difficult time.

—Debbie Hensley

My sweet Megan.. This is not goodbye.. this is a see you later message.. much love to you.. sending love and prayers to the family.. Debbie Patton

Mrs. Morehead. I'm so sorry about Megan. She was a precious girl and I enjoyed teaching her. She was my favorite student. I am sick today so I will be unable to come by and offer my condolences. I'll be thinking of you.

—Kathy Snow

So sorry for your loss. Love you. I am on a trip but your family is in my prayers

—Anita Fox

Loved working with her at Friday friends for years, I will miss her so much. We had tons of laughs and good times together. I hate our lives went separate ways when things got bad but she will always be in my heart. God got another angel too soon she was so full of life and always had fun and made people laugh.

—Felicia Mary Robbins

Megan, You had a whole life left to live. You will be missed. I pray you are not suffering anymore. You were always so kind to me in school. I pray that god wraps his arms around your family. Rest easy Megan

My condolences are with you all in this trying time. I know Megan and I had drifted apart over the last several years, but I loved her dearly and always wanted the best for her. I pray the lord gives you peace and comfort in the days ahead. Megan, may you rest easy in heaven and we will see you again one day. I can't wait to see that beautiful smile and hear your infectious laugh again.

—Erin Rhoney

I thought really hard about what to write. There's so much I can say. Your beauty remains endless Your loving heart and beautiful smile would light up a room. You will be so missed I just said a prayer to let Chelsea know she needs to find you... And she will... Love You so Much Cassie

—Cassie Perry

To Megan's family, I didn't get to meet any of you, i had only known Megan a few months, but i know she was a sweet woman, a good woman, and a kind and loving woman. It's such a shame she's gone. The world will forever be a darker, colder place without her beautiful light. My sincerest condolences for your loss. Please take comfort in knowing she's better off than we are. She's with her dad and our heavenly father.

—Mikey Winstead

Megan and my granddaughter Chelsea clontz were good friends and that's how I came to know Megan. Loved seeing her at Friday friends whenever we would have Chelsea's daughter's birthday party there. She was a sweet girl and will be missed. Megan and Chelsea are united again in heaven.

—Diane ayers

So sorry for you the loss of your precious precious daughter. She is now safe in heaven with Jesus Christ.

—Kathy Snow

I am absolutely heart broken. Megan you were one of a kind. Such a beautiful human being, inside and out. You had such a calming presence and loved hard. I am so glad I got to see you not long ago and hug your neck. If only I knew it would be the last one. Your chains are broken baby. Fly high up there I know your so so happy to see your sweet daddy and all the other friends we've lost over the years. I know how much you were struggling. All that pain is gone now. I love you Megan. Always have loved you. My mom loved you. My condolences to your mom, tour sweet baby boy, and the rest of your family. I will forever cherish all the memories, all the fun times we had together. Until we meet again sweet girl. This isn't goodbye. It's I'll see you later.
