Love and prayers to all the family and friends. Mildred was one of the strongest people I know. One that never wanted to give up, even in her last hours. She is someone that I have learned from to always keep going. She will be dearly missed

Mil had a special place in my heart. She was one in a million. I have great memories of her. I know that she is enjoying her birthday in heaven and she has met many of her loved ones that were waiting for her. To you that are still be here know she is no longer suffering and she's waiting for you. Keep the faith and keep looking to God to carry you through. Remember you didn't say goodbye to her, you said I'll see you soon.
