I am so sorry. I loved Nancy and just heard of her passing. I knew something was wrong because I hadn't seen her out and about. She made a killer chicken pie and was a wonderful friend.

Nancy did all the dry wall in our house. She did a super job! During this time, we became great friends with Nancy! Also, Nancy and her business partner decorated Hillcrest Elementary each year at Christmas. They literally created a winter wonderland to delight the children. Nancy loved knowing how happy she made the children. Our sincere condolences to the family. Susan and David Pollpeter
