I m so sorry to hear of the passing of Revonda. She was a bit older than me but as cousins we got together when we could. She was always a sweet and loving person and I can see her sweet smile now. She is at peace now with so many our dear family member including Aunt Mae and Uncle Charles. Rest in peace dear cousin. Dear Leslie and all the family, Revonda was one of the special women I remember from the Pilot Club here in Morganton. I never was around Revonda that I didn't leave with a smile and even some laughter! She was so proud of you and your family. She shared lots of stories. God's blessings of comfort and peace, Lynn Garrett
