Rick, I miss you, buddy. You were a true friend to me. I felt like we were more brother and sister. I hate this happened, but I know you are in a better place. The kids and I love and miss you!

Ah, Rick. I wondered about you over the years, how you were doing, where you were. We got pretty close as first cousins go and I missed you and still do. I hope you're living your best dream right now. Fly high cuz. Fly high.

—Peppi Grant

I'm so sorry to hear of Rick's passing. Rick was my first cousin. I knew him as a young girl, but lost touch with him. He taught me how to chord a guitar. Please accept my sincere condolences. 704-813-8523.

Rick, I'll sure miss your smiling, funny self at the Dr Office. You always had a kind word, a story to tell me & you were one of my favorites. It was an honor to help you. Rest easy, friend.
