We were tearfully touched by this very unfortunate news. I went to High School with Rodney, played football together and many in his family I also call family and good friends. I last saw and spent some time with him a few short years ago at a mutual relative's house on one of our visits back home. He was the same kind, level headed gentleman I always knew him to be. Our condolences go out to his family, friends, and coworkers who knew him well. This was a great loss for us all, because the world could use all the Rodney's we can get. May God keep us all.....
