So sorry to hear about Russell. We were just talking about all the good times we had on the four wheelers and riding back in the mountains. Such a good humble man. We will miss him.

What a good man Russell Dale was.... so thankful for his willingness to always help my father. He was Dads go to guy for small engine repair and any outside work Dad was doing. I admired this mans abilities and work ethic... a "mans man" and the epitome of a good neighbor. The Salem community will miss this man, may God bless and comfort the Dale family.
