This breaks my heart so much. I was her bus driver for so many years and I loved her and the other two. She was always such a sweet and happy person. She helped me so much while on my bus. Prayers for her family and especially her children. Always remember the good times and special memories you made with her. Will miss you sweet friend

–Janice Harris Collins

If the family needs anything and I can help don't hesitate to ask youre my family and I want to be there for you. I love you all. Cody
