Van Kelton Mauney

Oct. 30, 1959 - Sept. 16, 2021

Van Kelton Mauney, 61, of Morganton passed away Thursday, September 16, 2021. Born in Burke County, NC on October 30, 1959, he was the son of Ted Mauney (Carol) and Gloria Ann Perrell Burnette. Van was an active believer in Jesus Christ and attended North Morganton United Methodist Church when able. He was a graduate of East Burke High School and attended Chowan College. Van was a member of the Cardiac Cavaliers at East Burke, coached Mulls Little League Football Team, and he loved the game of football. He was a master carpenter, never complained, enjoyed making people laugh, and was always smiling. Mr. Mauney was a wonderful father and grandfather, respectful son, and a loving brother. He was a simple man.

In addition to his parents, Van is survived by his sons, Jacob Kelton Mauney (friend, Denise) and Caleb Van Mauney; grandchildren, Marlie Jane Mauney and Jolene Ava Faye Carr; sister, Shannon Brunette (friend, Waylon Smith); step-brothers, Patrick Mauney (Dianna) and Kelly Mauney; a number of nieces and nephews, and his canine companion, Gemma.

Mr. Mauney was preceded in death by his grandparents, Tom and Katherine Mauney and Arland and Lola Wiseman Perrell; sister, Vicki Ann Mauney; and step-father, Thurston Burnette.

Mr. Mauney will be available for viewing from 2 to 4 p.m., Thursday, September 23, 2021 at Sossoman Funeral Home. The family will hold a private graveside service.

Memorial contributions may be made to the National Kidney Foundation, North Morganton United Methodist Church, or to Friends for Animals.

Sossoman Funeral Home and Crematory Center is assisting the family with the arrangements.
