My baby brother, I love you so much. It made me so happy to see and meet the family you have found with Rita's family. To see how much they love you has meant the world to me. We are not always born into the family we are meant to have. You truly found yours and that makes me happy. I love you so much forever and always. Until we meet again. Sam your loving sister.

—Chelsa (Sam) Ervin

Cliff, I loved you so very much and you was a wonderful husband to my stepdaughter, Rita.. I am happy that you went home with God now and I will never forget you or how much you meant to all of us in this family. You also promised to save a place for me when I get home too. See you as soon as possible.

Cliff was THE man. I was lucky enough to call him my stepfather....one who CHOSE to love us,not because he was obligated. Listening to Bob Seger will never be the same. Thank you for everyone behind the scenes who is helping commemorate his life.
