—Susie Coffey Edwards

Dear Tammy and family, May light perpetual shine upon your father and grant him peace. And may you be comforted knowing that your friends are thinking of you.

—Brenda Bost Trott

I'm so sorry, I will keep the family in my prayers. He was an amazing man, I'm glad I got the opportunity to meet him!

—Emily Deal

Our deepest sympathy to you Tammy. We know how much you loved your dad. You were blessed to have loving parents. May you find comfort and peace knowing that your dad is now in God's care.

I was so shocked to hear this when you texted me yesterday. My day hasn't been the same. I felt after I met your dad the first time but this was someone I should have been friends with for years. I always enjoyed his story and comments about things in life. I guess he was so much like my dad. I you'll miss him deeply but he wouldn't want you to worry or cry over him. Now your mother has him with her and all we can do is wait till we see them all one day. Hugs and love

—Roger Austin Hart

My sympathy to Tammy and the family members. Vernon was well respected in the community. He was always mentioned when not at church and he will be missed.

—Reba P Reece

Deepest sympathy.
