Sossoman
Funeral Home & Crematory Center
5th Generation Family Owned & Operated Since 1949.

Vivian Faye Vermillion

None - May 19, 2007

Vivian Faye Vermillion, 60 of Willowbrook Drive, Morganton passed away Saturday May 19, 2007 at Grace Hospital following a brief illness. She was a daughter of the late Horace Dudney. Faye was employed at Alpine Chiropractic Center. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Morganton. The best Mother a son could have. You leave a husband, Daniel W. Vermillion, who will forever miss his best friend and soul-mate. Anyone who remembers Faye knows she was the life of the party. It was just her time to go, and the Lord wanted you to help spice things up in Heaven.You were a survivor that has made it through a life of hard knocks, overcoming every obstacle. In the dictionary under the word "perfect" is where you can find Vivian Faye Vermillion. You were the perfect Mother to Chad and Brad, a perfect wife to Dan, a perfect role model, and a perfect grandmother to Blaze. The Lord is waiting for you with open arms, and one day you'll be there to welcome all of us with open arms. Its time for us to share you with heaven, they are lucky to have you.You are forever in our hearts and prayers!Mrs. Vermillion is survived by her husband, Dan, of the home; her mother, Roudy Turberville Dudney, of Salisbury, NC; two sons, Chad McCall and wife, Ashley, and their son, Blaze, all of Salt Lake City, UT, and Brad McCall and wife, Wendy, of Morganton; a brother, Mickey Dudney of Salisbury; and two sisters, Brenda Graham and Linda Brigg, both of Salisbury.The memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m., Monday, May 21, 2007 in the Colonial Chapel of Sossoman Funeral Home with Rev. Michael Bailey officiating. The family will receive friends following the service. At other times the family will be at the residence, 309 Willowbrook Drive, Morganton. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 4-A Oak Branch Drive, Greensboro, NC 27407.

Tribute Wall

No tributes added yet.