My sweet, sweet Willow. I have loved you since the day your mama told me she was pregnant with you. Through every ultrasound picture and every exciting conversation with Katlin I grew to love you even more than I knew was possible to love someone that I hadn't even met yet. I just know that you are the most beautiful baby in heaven and I can't wait until the day I get to meet you

Katlin i really don't know what to say or where to start. I am at a loss for words and this has really hit home for me this week. I pray for comfort and understanding for you and the family through this difficult time. Take refuge in knowing Willow is in the arms of Jesus along with my Kaitlin whom we lost thirty-seven years ago. I won't say goodbye, just so long until we meet in Heaven beautiful little miss Willow. Jesus please take care of my dear friends Katlin and Ashley and keep them in the palm of your hands.
