Aunt Barbara, Precious Cousins, I'm so sorry that I could not be there in person, but you all are in my thoughts and prayers. The memories we hold in our hearts of our loved ones sustain us though our grief. Life truly passes so quickly and I believe it is our faith in Christ, the love we give and receive is what makes our lives whole. Wilson was such a example of this. With much love and prayers,

Will never forget Wilson. He and Barbara were some of the first people to extend the hand of Christian fellowship to us when we came to Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church where they were attending at that time. Wilson was a caring, personable, and friendly person, a genuine Christian. Our prayers are with you family in your loss. In his homegoing, we can celebrate his relationship with the Lord and that loss. In his homegoing, we can celebrate his relationship with the Lord and that we will see him again; our goodbyes are only temporary. In the interim, may our Lord comfort you and give you the peace only He can in this difficult time.

Praying for the family during this difficult time. Wilson was a good man and a good friend. You could count on him to help or listen anytime. I enjoyed working with him at Shadowline.

Wilson, my first cousin, and I were born the same year in 1944 and had many pleasant interactions during our years growing up. I remember him as a very nice person to be around. I know through his life he was a hard worker at many jobs. I also recall how well he took care of his Father and Mother during their final years. He also created a very nice family album that he gave to all of us at a family reunion that he organized. I will always have fond memories of Wilson, and he will be missed.
